Sign up for now and never miss the top politics stories again. In a surprising twist to the the No.18 car saga, the World Champions only have one Mercedes in their line-up. And despite the prestigious Grand Prix being so tight at the top of the standings, seven-time champion Lewis Hamilton is leading the charge for the team that beat him by just 0.125s to retain their title in Hungary. The British racer lost out to team-mate Valtteri Bottas by just 0.125s, setting pole in both the qualifying and race and will start on the front row. Hamilton told Sky Sports: "I am really, really happy with the car; the tyres felt really really good, and the balance felt really, really good. "Bottas didn't get a similar car so we are going to sort it out." Hamilton added: "Obviously we still have a long way to go in the championship, and I need to make sure my lead on my team-mate is as big as possible, and see what happens in the race." The 27-year-old clinched the title with a
