Let's find out what they picked from the list of the top ten solar system toys which hit the shelves this year. 1. Caresse Pluto This ultra-popular Caresse toy system allows you to build from the seven planets and two dwarf planets. It was one of the top selling toys in 2018 and is one of the bestselling toys in 2019. You can build up to a mini solar system complete with all the planets. After it's all built you can give it a spin with the included smart magnet and see your mini solar system appear to move around before your eyes. 2. Disney Skyliner If you're a real Disney fan, you can build a solar system which mimics the animated Disney film, "Fun for All Ages" with your Disney Skyliner soft play set. Kids can build their own fairy tale town by constructing spaceships, homes, towns, and more. 3. Little Things This solar system comes with over 20 pieces and allows you to build all sorts of different scenes. Kids can build a tree house, a spaceship, a cave, a star system, or whatever their imagination can conjure up. 4. Fun Planet Solar Mini Toy Nomadic children who love planet building
